

A topographic map showing a mountainous region. A specific area in the upper left is highlighted with red diagonal hatching and labeled 'Comelico Superiore'. A larger area to its right is shaded in a solid red color. The map uses a color gradient from light yellow to white to represent elevation, with a blue line indicating a boundary or river system.

Comelico
Superiore